BETHEL COMMUNITY STOREHOUSE

Executive Director's Report

"One Another"

God's "one another" commands, calls us to have hearts of humility, love & kindness. The only way to develop these qualities is to choose to interact with others. We learn to bear with each other, to forgive and to accept others as Jesus accepted us. These heart attitudes are possible with the help of the Spirit who lives in us. Here are ways to build community:

Serve each other 1 Peter 4:10

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others"

Serve others together Hebrews 10:24

"Spur one another on toward love and good deeds"

Pray together Galatians 6:2 & James 5:16

"Carry each other's burdens & pray for each other"

Share together 1 Thessalonians 5:11

"Encourage one another daily"

Relax together Romans 12:16

"Live in harmony with one another"

Building community is what the Bethel Community Storehouse is all about
Neighbors Helping Neighbors
Together, we are making a difference!

Benefits of Volunteering
 ♥ It reconnects you with purpose
 There's a deep satisfaction that comes from doing something that isn't about achievement, money, or status. When you help someone, you're reminded that you matter in a way that's bigger than your job title or your to-do list.
