Bethel is supported by 55 dedicated volunteers and trainees, ranging in age from 15 to 93. They bring diverse backgrounds, skills, and life experiences to our mission. One volunteer has served faithfully for 39 years, and 11 others have been with us for more than a decade. Our volunteers are the heart of Bethel's work — without them, our mission would not be possible. They are truly an invaluable asset to everything we do.

I volunteer because...

I love this place, it is my second home. My husband and I used to shop here before he passed and he told me to come in and volunteer. After he was gone I got really depressed and it took 3 months for me to come in but when I finally came in I liked it right away, the first day. Everyone is so nice! There is always lots to do, I have new friends, and it is fulfilling. I absolutely love this place, don't know what I would do without it.
